(Colorado Springs, CO) August 12, 2010 – Elizabeth Campisi has released her debut CD titled "Sing Your Name" on Dormer House Records. Her first radio single, "Sing Your Name," goes for adds at radio on August 24, 2010 along with a music video produced by veteran Dove Award winning film producer Steven Yake.

Elizabeth was born in San Jose, California. As a young girl she moved to Wales, United Kingdom where her love for singing blossomed. She studied with faculty from the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art as well as attended the Royal Academy of Dance for a summer in London. After moving back to the United States, she began performing professionally at age fifteen, starring in roles with regional companies such as TheatreWorks, American Musical Theatre of San Jose and the American Conservatory Theatre. She has performed professionally in both Los Angeles and New York.

Produced by Dove Award winning songwriter/producer Don Koch (4-HIM, Michael English, Newsong, Philips Craig & Dean, Avalon, Larnelle Harris), the lyrics of "Sing Your Name" provide a reminder of who God is in our lives.

You are Lord, you are God over everything
You are master, redeemer you are my King
You are meant to be worshiped for who you are
You are fullness of life to the empty heart
You're the day you're the night you're the morning star
And I'm not worthy of anything

Steven Yake of Yake Films (Nashville, TN) produced the music video of "Sing Your Name" which captures Elizabeth's joy for who God is in her life.

Billboard AC reporter Cecil Van Houten of Family Life Network says:

"Just listened to and watched the video for Sing Your Name. I think you've got a hit on your hands! She's got a great voice, good tune, well-produced. Has tempo and a great, upbeat feel. We'll be adding later this month!"

Lastly, Jon Rivers, host of 20 The Countdown Magazine, will be featuring "Sing Your Name" on "Jon's Future Favorites," a special feature on the countdown show which airs on over 900 stations worldwide.
